JULY 2017

DECK: GAME OF THRONES TAROT
WWW.TUCUMCARITAROT.COM

Welcome to the summer!

Is everyone ready to cut loose and break free of the day to day boredom? After a couple of months of less than stellar reception of the Tarotscopes I discontinued them - only to have several people tell me that they really missed them. Turns out even though a lot of the emails weren't being opened that you guys were really just sharing the heck out of them with your friends!

So just for you I bring back the Tarotscopes, with a new format. If this is a feature of our site that you enjoy then by all means please let me know in the comments section of the post or by dropping me an email. I love mail <3

AQUARIUS
JAN 20 - FEB 18

The World

The World can often signify that you are figuratively feeling the weight of the world on your shoulders, which is not an easy place to be.

It's an excellent time to review how well you do at asking for help when you need it. Remember you don't have to do everything on your own so learn when to delegate when you can and when to ask for assistance when you can't. This can often be a card of completion. You've worked hard, and you are almost to the finish line in some way so don't quit now when you are so close! You're almost definitely in need of some well-deserved rest and relaxation; don't be afraid to take it. You are getting closer to who you really are at your deepest levels.

Card: Khalessi's Dragons

Questions to ask yourself

- If you could create your own ideal world, what would it look like?
- What conditions do you need to create for the life you want to live?

PISCES
FEB 19 - MAR 20

The Sun

When the Sun card shows for you, it's a sign that soon you are likely to find yourself feeling more free than you have in a while - maybe years. This is a great time to take a vacation and to experience different things. The Sun is about vitality, freedom, joy, and self-expression. Things in general are very likely to be going very well for you. However, even though finances are likely to be in good shape when this card appears, that does not mean that you should lose focus on what is truly important in life, and money is not very high on that list. This is a good time to socialize, to meet new people, and to get out and about.

Card: Margery Tyrell

Questions to ask yourself

- Do you welcome the light, or are you afraid of what it might expose?
- Do you keep a list of all the positive things in your life to be thankful for?

ARIES
MAR 21 - APR 19

Strength

Strength indicates the importance of mind over matter, and reminds you to focus on what you do want rather than what you don't want in your life. Its main point is that you have the ability to harness your thoughts and to use them for your - and everyone else's - highest good. Not only do you have the ability; you have the responsibility. So conquer your fears, control your impulses, and never lose patience with yourself or what you are doing. It's important now for you to make time to meditate and contemplate and spend some time alone even if you are in a committed relationship and have nineteen children! Do not allow yourself to spend time in preoccupation and fear. Outward things will be going all right but what is of the most paramount importance is keeping your head on straight. Card: Brienne of Tarth

Questions to ask yourself

- How can your personal strengths help those around you?
- Are you throwing your weight around instead of supporting someone you love?

TAURUS
APR 20 - MAY 20

The Fool

The Fool is always an indicator of newness; as well as the purity and open-hearted energy of a child. This is generally considered a positive card, with the caveat that it's important to take time to be sure that you are "looking where you're going."

Other people may not understand or support your new ideas and/or proposals, but if you know that you're right, press ahead, and try to help them to understand where you are coming from. This sometimes will indicate finding a new position - or even that the time could be right for you to "go off on your own" and start your own business. Card: Joffrey

Questions to ask yourself

- What does it mean to follow your gut?
- If you could do, have, or be anything right now what would it be?

GEMINI
MAY 21- JUN 20

The Lovers

The Lovers is associated with the astrological sign of Gemini, "The Twins." It almost always points to partnerships with just one other person; generally, and not surprisingly, this indicates a romantic partnership, but of course this is not always the case. Less frequently, it points to the duality that all of us have inwardly. It could be that your heart is telling you one thing, and your head, another. In general, the thing to do is (within the bounds of your morality) to follow your heart. Some people say there are only two modes that any of us are operating under at any time; and that's "fear" or "love." When you can: choose love

Card: Edmure and Rosiland

Questions to ask yourself

- How do you wish to be loved?
- Where are your expectations limiting your experiences with those around you?
- How can you be more like the person, place or thing that you are working to attract?

CANCER
JUN 21 - JUL 22

Temperance

Temperance is a card about balance, in many ways, and relationships of all kinds. Friendships, family, romantic partnerships, and work partnerships all need your attention. This is also a card about alchemy or mixing and matching. You may have to try several approaches to things before you find what is truly right for you. Although in general all your relationships are likely to be going quite well, you may need to look at your deeper personal issues and see if or how these are standing in your way. And if they are, how to work through them and integrate them. The idea now is to do what it takes to find balance, in yourself, in your relationships, and with your goals and aspirations.

Card: Lord Vyras

Questions to ask yourself

- How can you use opposites in your life to bring more balance and harmony?
- If you could get your "cover" to tell any story at all, what would it be?

LEO
JUL 23 - AUG 22

Justice

Justice deals with the idea of karma and the law of cause and effect, stating that all events, and all people, are connected. It's important to remember that not everything you are dealing with, however, is a direct result of your own actions or karma. This card evokes the need for fairness, balance, and harmony. Operate in as balanced and reasonable a fashion as you can. This includes in how you think about and treat yourself. If you are directly involved with a court case, it is likely to be resolved, at least in large degree, in your favor. Card: Stannis Baratheon

Questions to ask yourself

- Do you have any pressing legal issues that need to be dealt with?
- Where are you needing resolution in your life?

VIRGO
AUG 23 - SEPT 22

The Emperor

The Emperor shows us that domination of the mind over the heart is sometimes not wanted, but in some cases is it necessary and even welcomed, and that this is part of what we must think about when he appears. When hard choices must be made it's important to maintain your concentration and focus, and this is something this time period will make it easy for you to do. Enjoy the assertiveness and confidence it that this self-control and focus brings. Forge ahead and do what you know is best. If you can master yourself then you should have little problem mastering the world and all the things in it. Card: Tywin Lannister

Questions to ask yourself

- What does it mean to be a leader?
- How does one keep their ego at bay while being of service to those around you?
- What skills do you have that would benefit others?

LIBRA
SEPT 23 - OCT 22

The Star

When the Star appears, you are likely to find yourself feeling rather inspired and you will be feeling rather more hopeful about the future than you have in a while. You will also feel more confident that your needs - whether these are emotional or financial needs or both - will be met. Nothing can be taken for granted of course, but it is unlikely that your confidence is misplaced. This is also a very spiritual card and you may find yourself, at least for a time, feeling at one with all of creation. It's not a common feeling so make sure you savor it. Card: Sansa Stark

Questions to ask yourself

- What changes are you willing to make in your life so you can achieve your heart's desire?
- What is the most irritating thing in your life right now, and how can you use it to your benefit?

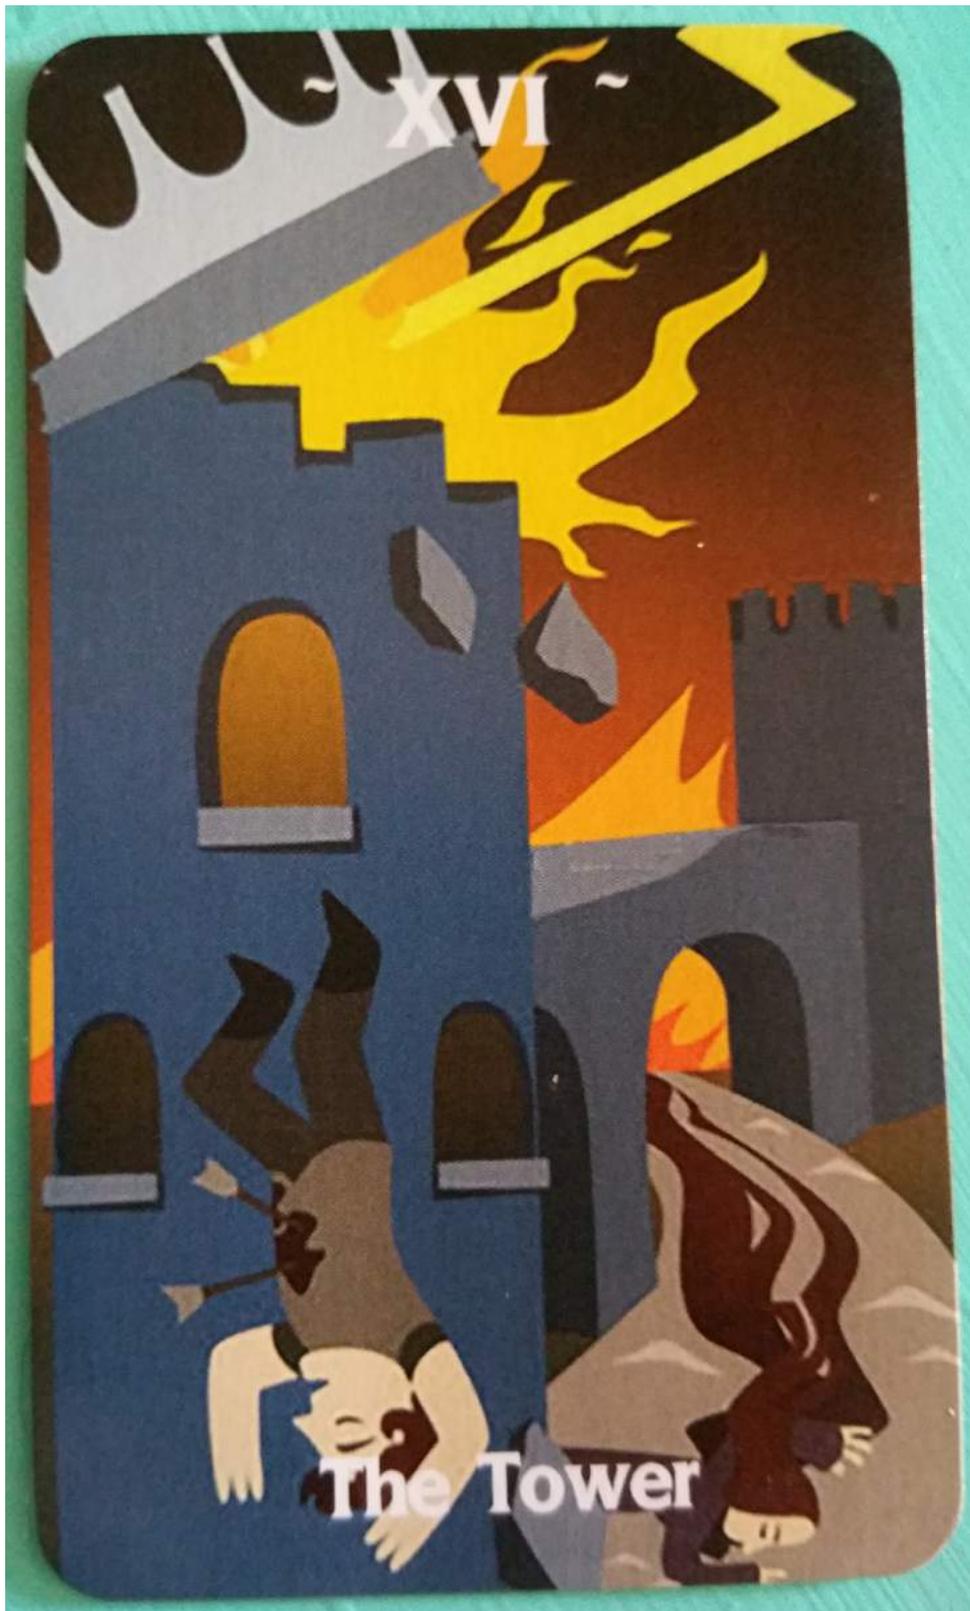

SCORPIO
OCT 23 - NOV 21

The Tower

The Tower is a card about change.: It is likely that some people/situations that you have counted on as being there for you may no longer be there in quite the same way. This doesn't have to be dire; change is the nature of life, and trying to prevent it is like trying to row upstream without a paddle. If you have been building castles in the air this may be the time that some of them come crashing down to earth. That's only a problem if you let it be. You will get through this time just fine; particularly if you remember that you have all the resources you need, already inside you, to deal with life and to do what you need to do. Card: The Red Wedding

Questions to ask yourself

- What are you reaching for - and why?
- Have you strayed from the path of your inner divinity?
- Have you merely constructed a monument to your ego?

SAGITTARIUS
NOV 11 – DEC 21

The Chariot

The Chariot indicates a lot of energy but not free-for-all energy. It's directed, controlled, and has a goal in mind. When this card appears you are likely to be fairly clear on what your hopes and dreams involve and what you are willing to do to make them come true. In general this card points to determination and ambition. It's about getting things done, and testing and proving that you've got what it takes. This is a sign that you should move forward with whatever you have in mind (and in your heart) and give it your best shot. Remember, though, that you'll need to use both your intellect and your heart, in order to be truly successful.

Card: Jamie Lannister

Questions to ask yourself

- Is the direction you are headed the right one for you?
- What ripple effects have you created lately that have taken you unawares?

The Chariot

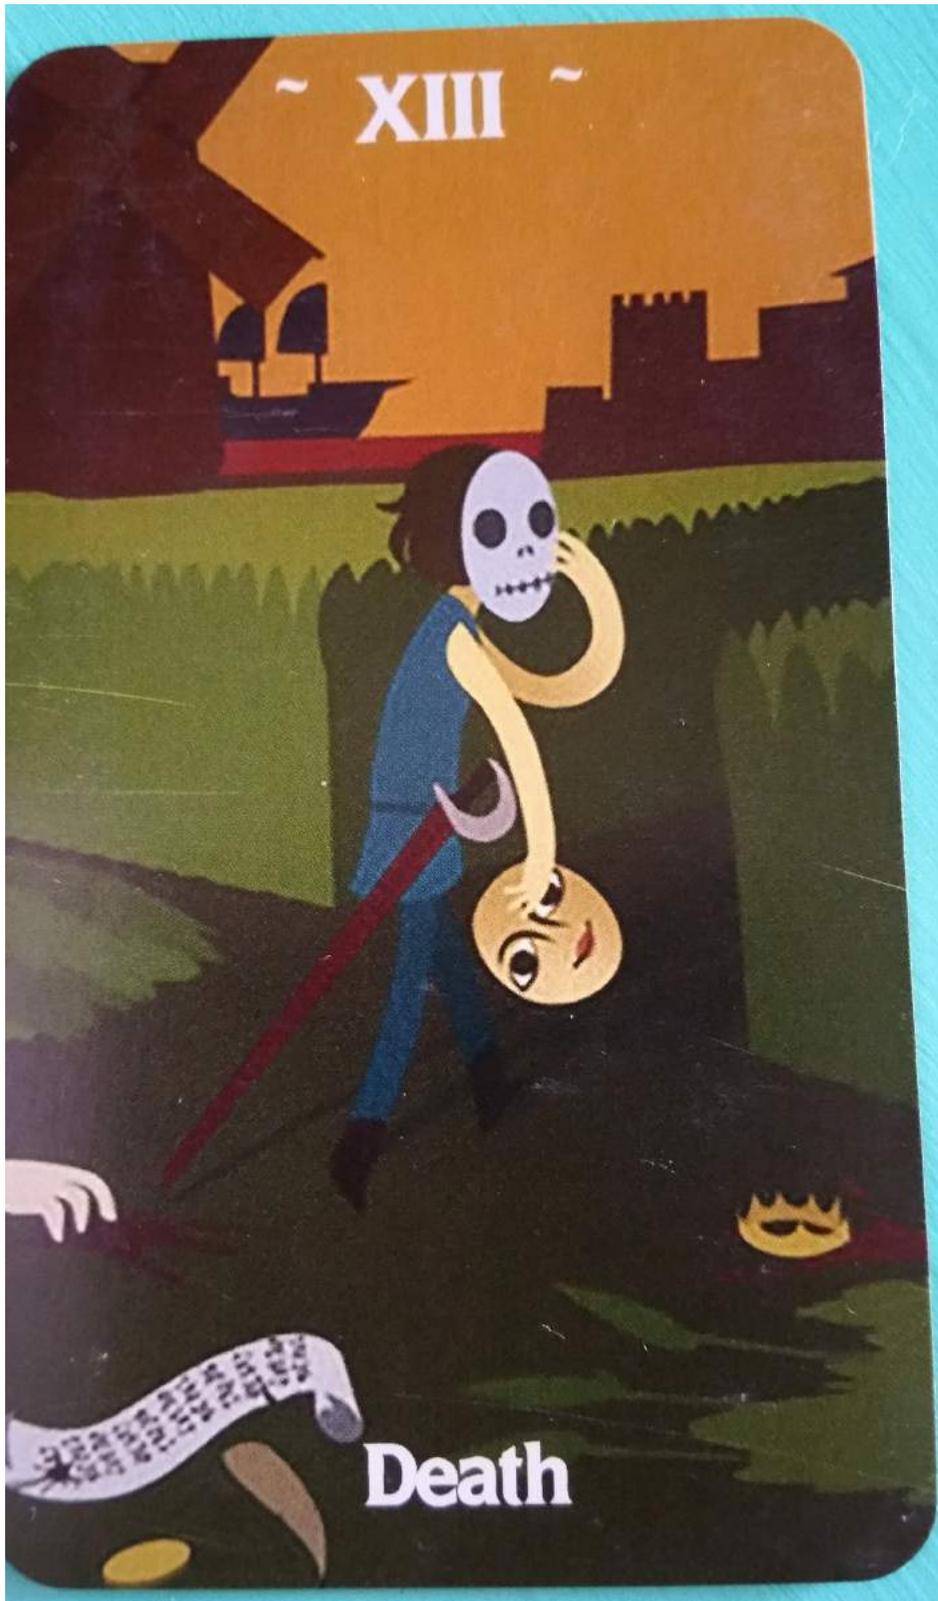

CAPRICORN
DEC 22 – JAN 19

Death

Death does not necessarily, or even usually, indicate physical death. In fact, in general, it is considered irresponsible for readers to predict physical death, as we are creatures with free will, and such things are not written in stone. This card simply indicates transformation and change. This is definitely a time of deep transformation, likely to be both inner and outwardly in your life. Situations, things, and people that you have counted on or gotten used to may no longer be available to you in quite the same way as they once were, and this transition can be difficult for some people. Card: Ayra Stark

Questions to ask yourself

- How many ideas have you rejected or allowed yourself to be talked out of?
- How many "bodies" do you have stacked up in your energy field?

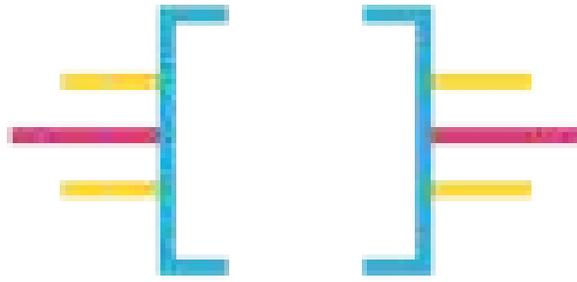

My name is Eva and I have been reading the tarot for over 20 years now. I enjoy working with clients to empower them to make positive life changes.

Readings start at just $5
